Royal Lancaster London Afternoon Tea £35.00
With a glass of Moët & Chandon Champagne
Brut £45.00 | Rosé £50.00

Champagne 125 175 750

Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial 12 17 70

The embodiment of Moët style: crisp and clean, showing citrus aromas and hints of biscuity flavours

R de Ruinart Brut 14 20 75

One of the oldest Champagne houses, founded in 1729, Ruinart was the first house to export Champagne. A classic Champagne that was sought-after and hard to come by. Elegant and subtle; one of the jewels in Champagne's crown

Moët & Chandon Rosé Imperial 15 21 81

Intense aromas of fresh red summer berries with floral notes and a light peppery touch.

Ruinart Blanc de Blancs 17 24 90

Grand Cru Chardonnay. Citrus, peach and white flower aromas evolve into a fresh and supple palate

Ruinart Rosé 90

Sublime golden pink in colour, a subtle nose of cherry and freshly-picked red berries leads to a fleshy and delightfully smooth finish.

Dom Ruinart 2006 150

From 100% grand cru Chardonnay. Flowing bubbles and gorgeous aromas, inherently rich but with aristocratic poise akin to a fine Puligny Montrachet. Magically opulent yet with a firm grip and core, a vegetative structure in the best sense. Long, youthful finale

Dom Pérignon 2009 170

Yet another masterpiece created by Richard Geoffroy. Unmistakable Dom Pérignon style with unparalleled silkiness throughout the palate. The mousse is worthy of its own chapter and the elegance is striking. Nice minerality and floral notes with citrus overtones.

Krug Grande Cuvée 210

Because it's been blended from 10 different vintages and 47 different wines from 25 crus, Krug is a super multi-vintage of its own kind. The extremely tough acidity, together with the heavy, rich Krug aromas, are unique. This bottle had a fabulously complex nose and palate, dominated by nuts and honey. The aftertaste was acidic, long and majestic, like a great symphony.

Krug Vintage 1998 350

Krug 1998 offers astonishing purity, precision, elegance and a very long finish. For Krug, a focus on chardonnay for Krug's 1998 vintage was an obvious choice due to the outstanding personality of chardonnay grapes of that year.

This vintage is known as "hommage au Chardonnay" as it is only the second Krug vintage, after 1981, where Chardonnay dominates.

Tea Selection
